

CHALLENGES

Careers New Zealand

Perhaps a challenge

Careers New Zealand

A definite
challenge

Careers New Zealand

Not a
challenge

Careers New Zealand

Being in a learning environment that suits me

Balancing the demands of work, study and family life

Controlling alcohol or drug use

Staying motivated

Feeling confident about myself

Having clear goals to aim for My cultural group

Having less time for leisure and sport

Past challenges with the law

Studying or working different hours

Doing what feels right for me

Doing something different to my friends

Knowing what's important to me
in a job

Knowing what interests me

Being flexible about how I gain experience

Learning new things

Access to transport for work or study

Knowing what the job involves and what learning is required

Approaching people directly about study or employment

Managing responsibilities
and workloads

Accepting lower pay rates to start with

Passing exams
or assessments

Having confidence that I can be successful in my new job or study

Living up to the expectations of family and friends

Being clean, tidy and smartly dressed

My age, qualifications or experience

Setting up and following good study routines

Talking about my skills and experience at interviews

Understanding study or training options

Planning my next steps

Finding out about different opportunities for me

My computer skills

My personal beliefs

Knowing clearly what is expected of me on the job

Finding suitable role models or people
to support me

Making decisions

Managing without family or friends
around me

Keeping up a good attitude

Staying healthy

Managing a disability

